BOBBI SMITH

Vancouver's Bobbi Smith is a three-time winner of the British Columbia Country Music Award for Female Vocalist of the Year and one of Canada's fastest rising country music stars. Since performing onstage with Shania Twain at the age of 12, she's gone on to play at some of the biggest country music events in Western Canada, and with some of country music's biggest stars, including Tim McGraw, Brooks & Dunn, and Brad Paisley.

SHOWSTOPPERS

GLEE is alive and well and living in BC! ShowStoppers is a dynamic group of talented young performers who sing, dance, and entertain in concert, on TV and on radio, and at events such as the Rogers Santa Claus Parade, Canada Day Parade, the PNE, Variety Club and Children's Hospital.

QUINZY

Winnipeg's Quinzy are two sets of brothers, who are passionate performers with brilliant pop songs and a live show that brims with melody and power, muscle and imagination, and humour and depth. The band was featured performer at the 2010 Winter Games, and their songs have been featured in TV shows such as ABC's 'Rookie Blue'.

CIRCUSWEST

Vancouver's CircusWest was a resident performer at Robson Square Celebration Site during the 2010 Winter Games. On parade day, they'll bring a West coast flair to their circus arts through a blend of dance, theatricality, magic and traditional circus.
